UAP Family Stands by the Flood Victims

UAP Establishes Relief Fund for Flood Victims

22 August 2024 : In the wake of devastating floods hitting the eastern parts of Bangladesh, the Chairperson of BOT, UAP initiated a Flood Relief Fund collection program on behalf of UAP. The BOT members, faculties, staff, students, alumni and many others have been generously contributing to that fund.

The university called on individuals who were able to contribute, urging them to join in the effort to support those in need. It emphasized that any assistance, no matter how small, could make a meaningful impact during these difficult times.

The majority of that fund had been used by DSW supporting various volunteer teams of the Departments and different clubs of UAP working in the heavily affected areas of Feni, Noakhali, Comilla. The remaining fund will be used for the post flood rehabilitation works.

UAP Students and Faculty Mobilize for Flood Relief Efforts

24 August 2024 : In response to the devastating flood situation across various regions of Bangladesh, students and faculty members of the University of Asia Pacific (UAP) organized emergency flood relief initiatives to assist affected communities.

Led by Mr. Ahmed Tausif Saad, an Assistant Professor in the Department of Business Administration, students from different departments coordinated their efforts to provide aid to flood victims. They formed three teams to carry out rescue operations and distribute food in the severely impacted areas. These teams actively operated in Noakhali and Feni, delivering essential supplies and conducting rescue missions.

Meanwhile, students and alumni from various departments continued collecting donations at the UAP campus and formed teams to travel to flood-affected areas in Comilla, Noakhali, and Feni to provide further assistance.

UAP Students Lead Clothing Drive for Flood Victims

A Big Salute to UAP CSE Heroes !

01 September 2024 : UAP is incredibly proud of its CSE students, who have taken the lead in supporting over 500 families affected by the recent floods. Their tireless efforts in reaching out to the communities in Lakshmipur, specifically in Ramganj Thana and the villages of Dumuria, Gazipur, Ramchar, and Bodorpur, have been nothing short of phenomenal.

Their compassion, dedication, and hard work are making a real difference during this challenging time. While the situation remains tense with ongoing struggles for access to fresh water, their actions have provided hope and relief to so many.

Thank you to these remarkable individuals for embodying the true spirit of community and for showing what it means to care for those in need. Let's continue to support our fellow citizens in every way we can. Together, we are stronger!
