

UAP FILM CLUB HOSTS
'CINEVERSE SEASON 6' –
A CELEBRATION OF STUDENT TALENT IN FILM AND STORYTELLING

The UAP Film Club, DSW proudly announces the successful completion of CineVerse – Film Fest Season 6, an unforgettable celebration of storytelling, creativity, and cinematic excellence. The festival brought together aspiring filmmakers, seasoned professionals, and passionate cinephiles to honor the transformative power of cinema. The prize-giving ceremony was held on Monday, 28 April 2025, at the UAP Auditorium, and was attended by nearly 150 students, marking a fitting culmination to the vibrant event.

The festival was a testament to the indomitable spirit of artistic expression and the boundless possibilities of visual storytelling.

We were deeply privileged to welcome the illustrious director Syed Ahmed Shawki as our distinguished Special Guest. His presence elevated the event to new heights, as he delivered a profoundly inspiring keynote address. Mr. Shawki's speech delved into the intricacies of storytelling, the essence of creativity, and the dynamic evolution of the global cinematic landscape. His words resonated deeply with the audience, sparking inspiration and igniting a renewed passion for the art of filmmaking among attendees. His insights served as a guiding light for both budding and established filmmakers, encouraging them to push the boundaries of their craft.

Along with director Syed Ahmed Shawki, the event was also presided over by Mr. Baivab Das, Adviser of UAP Film Club.

Students from various departments of UAP actively participated in the film contest, showcasing their talents across three segments: Reels, Story Writing, and Video Editing.

Reels Segment – “Show Your Acting Skill”

In this segment, participants showcased their acting prowess through short reels. Students portrayed powerful emotions, dramatic expressions, and cinematic dialogues, captivating both judges and audiences.

Video Editing Segment – Crafting Stories with Cuts

Story Writing Segment – Where Words Create Worlds

The writing section allowed students to showcase their storytelling talents through original scripts and narratives. Imaginative, emotional, and deeply personal stories came to life, proving that great films begin with powerful writing

Certificates were handed to both winners and participants to recognize their creative efforts, dedication, and active involvement, highlighting the value of their contributions to the success of the event.
